GOSPEL

At the conclusion of the proclamation of the Gospel, the Deacon does not venerate the Book of Gospels but takes it to Bishop Philip for him to venerate and he will then bless the people with it. Please remain standing for this.

Please sit after the bishop has blessed the people with the Book of the Gospels.

HOLY COMMUNION

Communicants are reminded to make an act of reverence before receiving Holy Communion and to consume the Sacred Host immediately upon reception. Those not in full communion with the Catholic Church – and anyone else not receiving Communion - are invited to make a 'Spiritual Communion' (see prayer below). You may wish to complete this by going forward to receive from the priest a blessing. Please indicate you wish to receive a blessing by crossing your arms over your chest.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in this Holy Sacrament of the Altar. I love You above all things and I passionately desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come spiritually into my heart so that I may unite myself wholly to You now and forever. Amen. (based on a prayer by St. Alphonsus Liguori)

PONTIFICAL BLESSING

Bishop: All:	The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.
Bishop:	Blessed be the name of the Lord.
All:	Now and forever.
Bishop:	Our help is in the name of the Lord.
All:	Who made heaven and earth.
Bishop:	May almighty God bless you, the Father, ✤ and the Son, ✤ and the Holy ✤ Spirit.
All:	Amen.

Deacons "At a liturgical celebration presided over by the bishop there should be at least three deacons, one to proclaim the Gospel reading and to minister at the altar, and two to assist the bishop<sup>1</sup>". If your Pastoral Area or Parish doesn't have three or more deacons, please contact Deacon Craig Aburn who will be able to call upon other deacons of our Diocese.

Acolytes / Altar Servers The minimum number of Acolytes or Altar Servers required is 6: Thurifer, Crucifer, two candle bearers, crozier bearer and mitre bearer. Please give an indication of how many Acolytes or Altar Servers you intend to have on the day.

Lectors "In liturgical celebrations readers have their own proper function and should exercise this, even though ministers of a higher rank may be present<sup>2</sup>". Only experienced, duly appointed lectors should proclaim the Word of God during liturgical celebrations. It would be useful for the lectors to have a brief practice with the microphone (if in a different liturgical setting) before the gathering psalms / music.

Psalmist / Cantor The chants between readings are very important liturgically and pastorally; it is therefore desirable in celebrations presided over by the bishop, especially in the Cathedral Church, that there be a psalmist or cantor who has the necessary musical ability and devotion to the liturgy. "The cantor of the psalm is responsible for singing, either responsorially or directly, the chants between readings – the Psalm, the gradual and Alleluia. <sup>3</sup>"

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion Due to the nature of Episcopal Ceremonies, there are usually sufficient numbers of Ordinary Ministers of the Eucharist present. Should the need arise however it would be useful to know how many Instituted EMHC are attending.

Concelebrating Priests Please bring an alb – other vestments will be provided.
